Plucky chickens given to farm following theft

A KIND-HEARTED chicken lover has donated some of her feathered friends to a community farm after reading about its plight in MK NEWS.

Last week this paper reported how the Wolverton Urb Farm, which is run by volunteers to help young people achieve horticultural qualifications, had ten chickens stolen.

After seeing the article, Maxine Hawkins, from West Bletchley, decided to offer five chickens to the farm.

She said: "When I read the article I thought it would be a good home for them to go to."

Wolverton and Greenleys in Bloom also decided to buy the farm a chicken, as it often orders plants from the project.

Wolvetron Community Orchard and Wolverton Business Alliance are also planning to do the same.

Fight to turn a troubled estate into 'safe haven'

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

AN ESTATE which has recently experienced shootings and a fatal arson attack - and on Monday an armed robbery with machetes - is now the focus of a pressure group's safety campaign.

Fishermead made national headlines in May when Mohamed Abdi Farah, 19, and Amin Ahmed Ismail, 18, were shot dead in an alleyway.

Earlier this year, Zimbabwean Barbara Zhanje was found guilty of manslaughter after she set fire to a House in Multiple Occupation (HiMO) in which a mother and her three-year-old daughter were killed.

Then on Monday, police officers were called to Tolcarne Avenue at 8.15am after two men armed with machetes forced their way into a house, threatened a family including two teenage boys and a three-year-old girl, and demanded cash and jewellery.

The problems on the estate with HiMOs have also been well documented.

It is for these kinds of reasons that Citizens:MK, an organisation which has 10,000 members in Milton Keynes, is hoping it can create the area's first 'City Safe Haven Estate' there.

Following an empassioned plea from 18-year-old student Giovanna Lareya, who lives in Fishermead, the group has set about working with residents and businesses to try to make the estate a safer place to live.

Giovanna said: "We have a perceived notion of fear in Fishermead. I live here, I know there's a high rate of crime and because of that there's the fear.

"It's not right to go around with a gun, with a knife, and make people feel unsafe.

"The shootings had a massive impact on the estate, people were really scared walking around."

Citizens:MK, which has members including the Muslim Association, schools and other community groups, is now looking to work with residents and businesses to try to dispel safety fears, increase crime reporting rates and improve community relationships.

A neighbourhood walk took place on Saturday and the group will be working with shops in area to encourage increased reporting of crime.

Chairman Mohamed Suleman said: "We want to show residents their own people in Fishermead are doing something, to come and join in and help on the ground. It's very much about community relationships."

£19m to be cut out of council's budget

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS to save £19.1million in next year's Milton Keynes Council budget were published on Friday.

Last year it was announced the authority would need to cut a huge £71million from its budget over a four-year period and this plan, which will go to a three-month public consultation in December, marks the next stage of that money-saving effort.

The plans include an increase in certain service charges, such as a £350,000 saving which will be made through charging for bulky waste collections.

There will also be an average rent increase for council tenants of 6.1 per cent, bringing this up to £83.08 per week.

Council leader Andrew Geary said setting this year's budget was a challenge.

He added: "From the start of the process we adopted the idea that disruption to services would be the last thing we looked at, that cutting services and removing them was the last option.

"To a greater extent we have achieved that.

"We haven't cut the contibutions to volunteer organisations because we are going to rely on them to deliver for us going forward.

"There are services we won't deliver in house anymore, but they will continue even though they are not in house."

Lib Dem opposition leader Sam Crooks says his party will be pouring over the details in the coming months, before final meetings to agree the budgets in February.

He said: "We have to do this carefully rather than rush into it."

Moving in: Gareth Gates with Cotels MD Marcia Gomez and customer relations manager Sonya Hawkins

Aladdin star moves into the city with Cotels

THE city has a new star resident.

This week, panto lead and pop sensation Gareth Gates moved in to a plush new apartment, which will be his home for the next two months.

Gareth is appearing alongside impressionist Paul Burling and guest stars, including astrologer Russell Grant, in Aladdin at Milton Keynes Theatre, which is being backed by MK NEWS.

He will be staying in Cotels Serviced Apartments, in the Theatre District, for the duration. He said: "My apartment's great, literally around the corner from the theatre.

"I've been to Milton Keynes a few times. It's a great place and the theatre's wonderful."

Knife used to burgle house

A MAN forced his way into the home of a 29-year-old woman and threatened her with a large kitchen knife on Saturday.

He then searched the house, in Redbridge in Stantonbury, and stole an HTC mobile phone. The knife was not used, but the victim received minor bruising in the incident at 4.45pm.

The offender is 5ft 6in, of slim build and was wearing a navy fleece and a chequered scarf.

Anyone with information should call PC Smith on 101, or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Coulthard at Red Bull event

SCOTTISH race-ace David Coulthard is the latest big name to be confirmed for Red Bull Racing's celebration in the city.

Milton Keynes' very own Formula One world champions are to parade their winning cars through the streets on December 10, with drivers Sebastian Vettel and Mark Webber behind the wheel.

Bosses have moved quickly to organise the double celebration, which honours Vettel's drivers' title and the overall constructors' prize.

Two-time Monaco Grand Prix winner Coulthard, a former Red Bull Racing driver, will be appearing in a Red Bull Nascar.

Also newly confirmed for the extravaganza is a Red Bull stunt rider display by Chris Pfeiffer.

The team, based at their factory in Tillbrook, are billing the event as a festival of 'sights, sounds and high speed' and hope that it will be an early Christmas present for the city.

The action will take place between 12.30 and 3pm in Midsummer Boulevard in CMK and tens of thousands are expected to turn up to witness the once-in-a-lifetime spectacle.

Among them are expected to be most of the factory's staff – who have been credited with being a key part of the team's success – and their families.

Classic games won't leave you board

RESIDENTS at a care home think they have proved that the old ones are the best.

Classic games from yesteryear such as shove ha'pennies, table-skittles, cribbage and quoits have been enjoyed throughout the week at the Highclere Nursing Home in Downs Barn.

Home manager Cheryl Edwards said: "Taking part in these old fashioned games has brought back memories that matter and it's a great way for our residents to reminisce.

"We've had cribbage and a Beetle Drive among the games we've played and our residents have no doubt enjoyed teaching us more about the old classics."

Local residents who missed playing old games were invited along to take the trip down memory lane.

A recent survey commissioned by Bupa Care Homes among over 1,000 residents revealed that dominoes is the most popular game of yesteryear.

This was followed closely by traditional card games and the classic board game of snakes and ladders.

City bridge may be redeveloped

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A BRIDGE at the centre of a controversial closure could yet be partly demolished to make way for a new development.

But before any decision is made about the future of Secklow Gate bridge, the public is being given the chance to have their say.

MK NEWS can reveal the owners of thecentre:mk have indicated their intention to redevelop the bridge section of Secklow Gate to make way for two new retail buildings.

It is included in a 'Request for an Environmental Impact Assessment Screening Opinion' document sent to Milton Keynes Council, which is submitted to a local authority prior to an official planning application.

The document states the proposed development 'comprises demolition of part of Secklow Gate, between Silbury Arcade and Midsummer Arcade, and the existing units beneath them within thecentre:mk'.

The open-air market could also be moved to an appropriate alternative location.

A public exhibition and consultation will now take place at thecentre:mk on December 2-3 and a spokesman stressed no decisions will be made until after this event.

She said: "We've submitted a pre-application and we will be entering into a public consultation to understand the view of various groups in the city on any future development."

MKNEWS BRIEFS

Speed cut consultation

A WORKING group set up to explore a proposed speed limit cut to 20mph on residential roads in West Bletchley will now consult with residents living in Whalley Drive, one of the roads affected. A meeting took place last Wednesday to discuss the plans with residents.

DJ joins Bowl line-up

INTERNATIONALLY-renowned DJ and producer Calvin Harris has been confirmed as part of the line-up at the Swedish House Mafia gig at the Milton Keynes Bowl on July 14. The chart-topper will join the Swedish dance trio and 17-year-old producer Madeon in a mammoth nine-hour event.

Save Our Spaces group

A RESIDENTS' group formed to protect the open spaces in and around Bletchley is holding its first meeting today. Bletchley Save Our Spaces was initially formed in opposition to proposals for the 5,000-home Salden Chase development to the west of the town. It has now changed its objectives and name and will meet on a regular basis. The meeting will be held at the West Bletchley council offices, off Whaddon Way, at 7pm.

Hospital boss search continues

A REPLACEMENT for the hospital's chief executive - who left almost 18 months ago - has still not been found, leaving the hospital forking out hundreds of thousands of pounds for an 'interim'.

Since former chief executive Jill Rodney left last June, Milton Keynes Hospital NHS Foundation Trust has employed Mark Millar, pictured, on a temporary basis.

Between July 2010 and April 2011 he was paid £213,282 to cover the role.

A new round of interviews last week failed to find a suitable candidate.

Hospital chairman David Wakefield said: "The trust is actively seeking a substantive chief executive.

"However, it is essential we find someone with suitable skills and experience and unfortunately following the most recent interviews, the trust was unable to make an appointment.

"As a result, the board has asked our interim chief executive to continue supporting the hospital until we identify the right person."

Stadiummk to get new name

SOME big name companies have already ruled themselves out of naming the home of MK Dons.

The club has announced it will be offering naming rights to stadiummk next year.

Andrew Cullen, sales and marketing director, said: "It is no secret that the club would be seeking a naming rights deal, especially as any revenue generated from such a partnership would enhance the competitiveness of MK Dons Football Club."

Already Ikea, which owns a large retail unit next to the stadium, has ruled itself out of the running. Primark, which will be opening a unit at the new development there, has also ruled itself out, along with city-based Marshall Amps and Network Rail.

How will this work for cyclists and pedestrians?

SIR - While the Cyclists' Touring Club (CTC) is supportive of the grid road/redway principle for transport in Milton Keynes, we are somewhat taken back by the statements by Abbey Hill Parish Council chairman, John Hawthorn, ('Residents back more grid roads', MK News, November 16) expressing pleasure that there are to be no crossings and traffic lights to slow motor vehicular flows.

However, to work, the grid road/redway system depends on pedestrian/cyclist grade separated crossings, either underpasses or bridges.

The CTC has long campaigned for these to be continued in the expansion areas on the grounds they are more convenient for all road users.

In spite of this the official line, which no real research supports, is that grid road crossings with lights are the preferred solution and that underpasses and bridges are not required.

Experience on the ground, for example along the New Bradwell-Newport Pagnell road, shows that crossings with lights are neither convenient for pedestrians/cyclists nor motorists, with all being delayed for varying lengths of time. This leaves us with the main question - how are pedestrians and cyclists going to cross the V4 if neither crossings with lights nor underpasses and bridges are to be provided?

In the meantime, pedestrians and cyclists might have to learn new skills, such as flying.

Philip Ashbourn
Milton Keynes CTC

Safety must come first

SIR - The committed Western Expansion Area (WEA) will bring 6,500 new homes, employment, schools and shops to what is presently farming land to the west of V4, Watling Street.

While the expansion will be slower in coming than foreseen a couple of years ago, the WEA will still impact significantly upon the existing communities on this edge of Milton Keynes.

At a recent packed meeting organised by Abbey Hill Parish Council, Two Mile Ash residents gained an insight into the likely extent of those impacts in terms of highway access and traffic flow.

At the meeting, we learned that agreement has been reached between Milton Keynes Council and the developers Redlawn/Gallagher on the principles that should govern connection to the grid network and the protection of grid corridor connections.

However, from the discussion it was clear that significant worries remain locally about traffic volumes and safety and about the adequacy of the plans for the WEA in those terms.

The newly created Two Mile Ash Environmental Group would be very concerned were the new traffic arrangements to lead to significant increases of traffic within Two Mile Ash, for example, as a result of traffic taking 'short cuts' through our village centre to by-pass congested parts of the grid.

In our view, however, a major deficiency of the current plans concerns the arrangements for crossing V4 for both pedestrians and cyclists.

Whereas the established practice for Milton Keynes (see the Milton Keynes Planning Manual) is that a typical 1km section of city road contains up to three grade separated crossings, by means either of bridges or underpasses, the present plans show only light-controlled crossings on the level.

In a consultation exercise carried out in April 2008, local residents voted by a large majority for segregated pedestrian facilities.

In terms of both pedestrians and cyclists, it is important that the WEA is properly linked to the existing developed areas in the same way that existing grid squares are interconnected.

And notwithstanding its Roman origins, Watling Street is little different from most other stretches of grid road in terms of the volumes and speeds of the traffic it carries.

We need to remember that one of the principal groups that would be using any crossing facilities would be children travelling from the WEA to school in Two Mile Ash (and other communities) and vice versa in respect of attendance at the WEA schools.

We should not compromise on the safety of our children, or on that of other vulnerable groups and individuals; therefore, truly safe pedestrian and cycle routes should be provided across V4, incorporating bridges or underpasses as appropriate.

Dr Chris Gossop
Chairman, Two Mile Ash Environmental Group

Thanks for signing up

SIR - May I please extend my belated but grateful thanks to all the citizens of Milton Keynes who signed my petition and helped me to get signatures on it for a reduced fare on local buses to concessionary bus pass holders who travel before 9.30am.

Nearly 800 MK people signed my petition. This is astounding support and as a result of the hard work by the bus users' group, we have won.

At a meeting of Milton Keynes Council on October 19, it was decided to grant a reduced fare of 50p per journey to concessionary bus pass holders on all local buses as from December 3.

I hope more citizens will join MK Bus Users' Group and strengthen our voice.

Padma Cheriyan
MK Bus Users' Group member

Why no consultation?

SIR - On behalf of the members of Milton Keynes Forum, I am writing to question the process by which the trustees of the Cenotaph Trust have come to the decisions made about the design, the location and the cost of the proposed MK Rose memorial.

While we understand there has been a series of meetings at which various interested organisations have been present, we are surprised that there has been no engagement with the wider public – no public meetings and even no opportunities for the public to become trustees for this worthy project.

There are some who consider that the memorial should be placed in a more accessible position in Central Milton Keynes, perhaps in one of the open spaces within the city area.

What was the decision making process that led to the proposed location in Campbell Park? Was it driven, we wonder, by the availability of money from the Parks Trust rather than a proper consideration of the nature of commemoration.

We would respectfully suggest that the final decision about the design and location of the proposed memorial be delayed until there has been appropriate public consultation.

The people of Milton Keynes should be asked whether they would like to have a memorial, and if so where it should go.

Instead, we are being presented with a fait accompli which, we would argue, is not appropriate in the circumstances without considerable further public scrutiny.

Carol Barac
Chairman, Milton Keynes Forum

REGARDING the story 'Fears over plan for mental health centre near schools' (MK NEWS, November 9).

The close proximity to the schools does need closer inspection.

As someone who has lived in this neighbourhood for nigh on 30 years, I implore other residents to write to their local MP and Milton Keynes Council.

You can use the website www.writetothem.com as it's quick and easy.

James Williams

SCHOOLS tend to be within communities which is exactly where we should be supporting people to be rehabilitated.

The idea that we should support people who have experienced mental ill health somewhere other than within our community harks back to the days when anyone who was a bit different was bused off to a big asylum miles from anywhere.

I really thought we had moved on from these attitudes. Mental ill health does not discriminate. It affects people from all backgrounds and around a quarter of us all will experience a period of mental illness during our lives.

There are already many rehab centres dotted around the city, where people live harmoniously with their neighbours.

The vast majority of people who use these services will have families, friends and careers and will return to them after a period of help, much the same as any other serious illness.

If we go back 30 years, people would avoid people with cancer, because of fears that they would somehow 'catch it'. We've moved on from these attitudes and and I truly hope that the same will come for people who have experienced mental illness.

Rather than judging and stigmatising, we should support this type of support and work together so people in our communities live the most positive lives possible.

It is interesting that the article on Page 21 of the same issue of MK NEWS discussed a new dementia service and spoke very positively about this. Why such a different attitude to a different type of mental illness?

Remembering: Sobia Basharat reads a poem she wrote for her brother

Tributes to Adil a year after murder

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

FAMILY and friends of murdered schoolboy Adil Basharat gathered to remember him on the anniversary of his death.

At a memorial at The Ridgeway Centre in Wolverton Mill, on Monday afternoon, 100 of the 16-year-old's closest friends and family came together.

Adil, of Greenleys, was stabbed with a broken golf club outside Kingsbrook School in Deanshanger on November 19 last year in a case of mistaken identity.

His sister, Sobia, read a poem she wrote for him and remembered times they spent together.

She said: "We had a low roof on our house and he would come out of his window and sit on the roof so we could talk to each other.

"When I went to uni he sent me a text asking me not go because he would be alone.

"I was really blessed to have him in my life and I don't think I have seen other siblings who have a bond like us. Every day is a struggle to cope."

Adil's girlfriend, Nisha Patel, sang I'm Like A Bird by Nelly Furtado, a song she was supposed to sing for Children in Need on the day Adil was attacked.

Nisha Patel sings in memory of her late boyfriend, Adil Basharat, pictured below

Adam Moore, 20, was found guilty at Northampton Crown Court in August of murdering Adil. He will serve a minimum of 16 years in prison.

Freddy Wilson, 20, Jake Batten, 22, both from Deanshanger, and Daniel Anderson, 20, from Stony Stratford were found not guilty of murder and manslaughter, but convicted of violent disorder. They were each sentenced to three years in prison.

Moore, of Cosgrove, was also sentenced to three years for violent disorder, to run currently with his jail term for murder.

Man knocked unconscious

A 44-YEAR-OLD man was assaulted on a redway between Fishermead and Springfield at 7pm on Friday.

Two men approached him and knocked him unconscious with an unknown weapon. The attackers were men wearing dark clothing and hooded tops. The main offender was white and wore a scarf with a Burberry pattern covering his face.

Anyone with information should call police on 101.

Call for more bobbies on the beat

A COUNCILLOR has hit out after survey figures suggest that 70 per cent of his constituents have not seen a police officer.

Cllr Nigel Long has received more than 100 responses to his crime survey, which reveal that more than two thirds have not seen a 'booby on the beat' in the last three months.

He said: "I am concerned that our community may not be getting its fair share of the city's police officer time. I am concerned this may reflect the need for the police to focus on higher crime areas and the pressure on police budgets as a result of funding cuts by Government."

"I would like to see more police officers 'on the beat'. I would like to see a higher profile for local police officers."

Bletchley neighbourhood Insp Iain Mcilwain said: "Like any organisation, we have finite resources and have to prioritise how best we use them to allow us to carry out our core duties, so police officers may carry out their beat in vehicles as well as on foot so they can respond more effectively to incidents and emergencies."

Award honours a music legend

MODERN jazz pioneer Sir John Dankworth, who with wife Dame Cleo Laine set up The Stables, is to be honoured by having a musical award named after him.

Wavendon Council will award the new trophy in his memory for the best woodwind performer at the annual Milton Keynes Music Festival.

The move is intended to provide lasting recognition of his contribution to music at the festival, of which he was president for many years.

The festival, which started in 1968 and is run by volunteers, is held every February and next year will be staged at the new theatre at Walton High School, Walnut Tree.

About 2,000 performers of all ages and ability enter the event every year, which also includes a six-day dance event.

More details about the festival can be downloaded from www.miltonkeynesfestival.org. Entries need to be received by December 22.

Firm loses manure spreading appeal

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A FARMING company fined after spreading stinking chicken manure across fields near residential homes has lost a High Court appeal.

Residents said they were left gagging for air when Fullers Farming Ltd spread large quantities of smelly chicken manure on its land off Woburn Sands Road in October 2009.

Milton Keynes Council served an Abatement Notice to stop it happening again, but after an incident last year, the company was convicted of a breach.

On Thursday, lawyers for the farming company argued that the original notice was defective but had their case rejected by a senior judge.

Fullers came to the attention of the council after a series of complaints in October 2009 of a disgusting smell, which residents said was keeping them confined to their homes.

An investigation found the company had been spreading noxious chicken waste on the land without immediately ploughing it into the soil.

A council spokesman said afterwards: "We have been involved in a number of actions against this company, following serious complaints from members of the public about the way they spread chicken waste on local farms and the resultant odour nuisance.

"We have issued a number of abatement notices to tackle the problem, which, when tested in court, were found to be reasonable, justified responses to serious Statutory Nuisances which have caused great distress to the people of Milton Keynes."

OAP victim of burglary

AN 81-YEAR-OLD woman was the victim of a distraction burglary.

He and another man stole cash from her handbag and cupboard, while another man waited in a van outside.

Football boss denies assault

LUTON Town boss Gary Brabin has appeared in court to deny assaulting two men and behaving in a threatening manner at a football match.

The Hatters' manager is charged with two counts of assault by beating and one charge of using threatening words or behaviour at the York City game on April 19.

One steward allegedly broke a finger and another was allegedly elbowed during the match at Bootham Crescent.

Mr Brabin, 40, of Milton Keynes, pleaded not guilty to all of the charges at Selby Magistrates' Court and will now face a trial.

He was granted unconditional bail.

Take part in cracking card contest

AMATEUR snappers from Wolverton to Woburn Sands are being reminded to get their cameras out to create a special Christmas card for The Queen.

As part of the bid for city status, Milton Keynes Council is launching a borough-wide competition to find an iconic photo which will be turned into a Christmas card for The Queen.

The card will be sent to Her Majesty in December with a message of support for Milton Keynes' city bid.

Photos submitted can be of a person, landscape, building, object or event, as long as the image 'captures the spirit of Milton Keynes' as you see it.

Complaints about prison health care

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE organisation in charge of health services at the city's prison has responded to complaints about its quality of care.

It comes after an NHS report stated the service at HMP Woodhill faces budget pressures.

Recently, MK NEWS received two complaints about the care prisoners are getting.

Ex-prisoner, Benjamin Brazil, said he did not get to see a doctor when he asked for one and has been left with 'head problems', 'short-term memory loss' and has 'severe pain' in his back as a result.

Another man allegedly fell in his cell due to no hand rails being fitted, losing a tooth, and his partner said he was on the floor for two hours after another fall.

A report to the NHS Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire board in September also raised budget concerns.

It stated the care service 'is reporting a year to date overspend', as 'the pressure has increased over the last two months due to an increase in drugs spend for a public health vaccination programme'.

Health budget concerns: HMP Woodhill

The report also stated the prison population has risen by two-and-a-half per cent over recent months, increasing pressure on staffing payments, but says 'significant work' is being done to urgently mitigate this.

In response, a spokesman for Milton Keynes Community Health Services (CHS), which runs the prison service, said: "Complaints from patients are always taken seriously and followed up. There is a process that ensures this is the case. No formal complaint will go unacknowledged.

"Demand for medical services is always subject to fluctuation for a variety of reasons. Although there have been pressures on the prison health spend, which falls within MK CHS' overall budget, at the end of August MK CHS reported a small surplus and the organisation is still predicting a planned break even position by the end of the year."

A new colourful porte in a storm

Artists Aaron Head and Lee Falmer work on one of the designs

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

IF YOU'RE out and about in the city centre this Christmas, you may notice the scenery has become a bit more colourful.

That's because four porte cocheres in Midsummer Boulevard, the open shelters which line the city centre grid roads to provide pedestrians with a safe haven from the rain, have been given a makeover.

MK Gallery ran a competition with the city's schools to design what will be displayed on the shelters until the summer and received more than 200 entries.

On Saturday there will be an official event at the gallery to unveil the winners, along with a selection of shortlisted entries.

But painters have been busy at work over the past few weeks getting the designs on to the structures, which are rather more colourful than their usual black.

Already, an autumnal design with different coloured leaves and an unusual but apt cow design are both on display, with the other two due to be finished before the end of this week.

The project, called Design Your MK, has been funded by Arts Council England, commissioned by Milton Keynes Council and delivered by the gallery.

It saw entries fly in from right across the city from those aged between four and 16 years old.

Once the four winning entries were chosen, the designs were scaled up and adapted to fit the porte cocheres.

Emma Fry, head of learning at MK Gallery, said: "The response from local schoolchildren to this competition was excellent and the standard of their artwork really impressed the judges.

"We congratulate them all and in particular our four worthy winners."

The winners will be announced at a ceremony as part of a day of events at the gallery on Saturday from 3pm. Entry is free.

Carving out plan to celebrate Olympics

The Rev David Moore with the flame sculpture that will travel around London

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A RETIRED Reverend is organising an art exhibition to celebrate the Olympics next year.

The Rev David Moore, who was the Methodist minister at the Church of Christ the Cornerstone in CMK, has gathered 20 artists who will display their carvings at an East End church.

The Rev Moore, who lives in Downs Barn, has organised the event, called Reaching Beyond, which will be held at Bow Road Methodist Church in London between July 23 and September 2.

The church is located about a mile from the Olympic Stadium in Stratford.

He explained: "The church in East London has just recently been renovated.

"It is just a mile from the Olympic stadium so it is an ideal spot to do something in conjunction with the Olympics.

"I have gathered together a group of people and we are putting together a whole series of events."

Beginning early next year a flame-shaped sculpture made by the Rev Moore will start its own journey around five boroughs of London; Greenwich, Hackney, Newham, Tower Hamlets and Waltham Forest.

"It will be passed around like the flame," he added.

"We couldn't have the Olympic Rings on it, so there is a chain around the base.

"It is an enormous amount of work and it is still in progress.

"Everyone involved comes from all over the place. The poetry competition we are running is open to people from all over the country.

"I am still making my wood sculpture for the exhibition. I have been making it for about six months.

"It is based around the Tower of Babel, which portrays the incapacity of people to communicate which ties in nicely with the Olympics which brings people together and is an occasion for communication."

For more on the exhibition visit www.reachingbeyond.co.uk.

Popular city festival ends on a high note

Rocking: Performers at the popular MK4U last year

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A POPULAR city festival, which has been axed due to a lack of funding, is helping young musicians one last time.

Last September it was announced MK4U, a youth music festival which had run for five years in Campbell Park, would no longer be held as the funds needed to run it could not be found.

But now organisers are using money left over from the festival funds to help people aged younger than 18 in their musical careers.

They are currently asking for applications for small grants up the value of £250, which can be used by local bands or solo artists to professionally record their music at the new state-of-the-art studio at Stantonbury Campus.

Pat Haig, secretary of MK4U, said: "Performers could be a violinist or a rock band, it doesn't matter about the style of music. There's a pot of about £1,500.

"This means we've come full circle and are putting the money back in to the people we are trying to support."

On the demise of the festival, Mrs Haig added: "We feel there's another opportunity for other people to come forward and create festivals with their own ethos - we did our bit over the last five years."

To apply, performers should email pat@tscevents.co.uk with reasons why their act should be chosen and links to Myspace or other websites where work can be heard.

How plans for the Rose

Unveiling: Mayor Alan Richards with MK Rose architect Gordon Young

THE original idea to create a central space, where people can visit and congregate at times of great celebration or public mourning, was sparked by a conversation with the former city centre chaplain.

David Moore, now a member of the Cenotaph Trust, which heads up the project, explained to some of the other trustees how, when the Queen Mother died, people travelled to the space outside Marks and Spencer in thecentre:mk to lay their flowers.

That area, called City Square, was the space originally designated as being the centre of Milton Keynes.

But after conversations between the trustees it was felt that the area was no longer appropriate for this type of public outpouring and that in fact the city lacked an appropriate place for an emotional focus akin to somewhere like Trafalgar Square in London or Centenary Square in Birmingham.

Since then five years of discussions, meetings and focus groups with city stakeholders such as religious and community leaders have taken place and the Rose, which is being backed by MK NEWS, was born.

Critics of the project have since raised their concerns the design is not in keeping with the traditional cenotaph idea, where those who have fought and died for the country can be commemorated, and feel such remembrance ceremonies should not be combined with other religious and celebrato-

have come into bloom

THE first pillar to be included as part of the MK Rose in Campbell Park was unveiled as part of an Armistice Day event on November 11.

It will be one of 140 that will commemorate or celebrate significant dates throughout history, to be chosen by the public.

Reporter ADAM GRINSELL spoke to trustees Gavin Anderson and John Moffoot to find out more about the project.

Design: An artist impression of the MK Rose memorial ry events. But the trustees feel the unveiling of the Armistice Day pillar on November 11, which was attended by a host of different religious and ethnic denominations, proves the artwork is the right place for such remembrance.

Trustee Gavin Anderson said: "I think the pictures from the unveiling support the principle you can get many people with different faiths, beliefs and backgrounds to come together for the same event.

"The quakers, humanists and buddhists and others might not feel comfortable going to a usual remembrance event.

"People still want to come forward to show their respect for fallen soldiers, irrelevant of their faith."

The £1.2million Rose, which will soon be opened to public consultation as to what should be on each of the pillars, is being paid for without any public funding.

"We are determined that there will be no public money attached to this," said John Moffoot, another of the trustees.

"The Parks Trust is putting in a fair amount of money because it wants to redevelop that end of Campbell Park and we've raised some money from personal contributions.

"We've received some money from Section 106 agreements - contributions from private developers provided for public art projects - and the council's finance officer is satisfied there will be sufficient further Section 106 money coming in over the next two years that the council is prepared to underwrite the project to £600,000.

"That's on the basis that it will never have to pay that money out because by the time it would have to it's already been paid for by developers in the Campbell Park area."

The Cenotaph Trust is still welcoming private donations and will also be collecting from members of the public with buckets in the city centre.

Branching out to celebrate jubilee

Carrina Milner,Community Mobiliser for Community Action MK with Lynsey Lindsay and her three children

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A COMMUNITY group is asking for your help to plant hundreds of trees in celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The group of Broughton residents will be planting 420 trees close to the junction of Countess Way and Newport Road.

The free pack of plants was given to them by the Woodland Trust, which has so far sent out more than 200,000 trees to be planted across the country.

From noon on Saturday you can help plant these trees as part of the trust's Jubilee Woods Project.

Community mobiliser Corrina Milner said: "Tree planting is a fantastic and fun way for us to do something lasting in our local area.

"We hope our trees will help attract wildlife and make a real difference to everyone who will see them.

"It's incredible to think that in just five years, our trees will be as tall as us.

"We'd like as many people from the local community as possible to come along and help us."

Victoria Hodson from the Woodland Trust said: "We are delighted the Broughton community are using our free tree scheme to plant more trees in their area.

"Communities are transforming their neighbourhoods, growing their own fruits and food, creating shade and shelter, and providing new homes for wildlife.

"Next year, we are offering more free trees as part of our Jubilee Woods Project to celebrate Queen Elizabeth's Diamond Jubilee and would love more communities to get involved."

In February, the trust is encouraging people across the UK to come together and plant one million trees in one month to celebrate the Queen's 60-year reign.

You can apply for a free pack at www.jubileewoods.org.uk/treepacks.

Applications for the February packs close on December 7.

Youths may soon have a bigger say

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

Cllr Judy Dereson and Katrina Hyden are involved in setting up the youth council

YOUNG people in one town could soon have more of a say in local decisions and services.

That's because Stony Stratford Town Council is currently considering setting up a youth council, which would be the first of its kind for a parish in the borough.

The idea, sparked by similar initiatives in nearby towns such as Buckingham, is gathering pace and support from organisations such as the Stony Stratford Youth Partnership and the Fullers Slade youth mobiliser.

The youth council would be consulted on issues such as playgrounds and would meet on a regular basis and make representations to the full council - it could even have its own budget.

Last Tuesday the town council met to discuss the possibility.

Councillor Judy Deveson, who deals with youth issues in the town, said: "Deputy town clerk Ian Reed mentioned the idea to me because one of my friends co-ordinates the youth partnership group.

"It would make sure the youth have a say. It's important they have a voice and to get them involved in democaracy at the earliest possible stage so they want to get involved later in life.

"All the people involved with young people in the town thought it was an excellent idea.

"We are now having discussions with the different youth groups and introducing the idea to the young people in the town - it's important to get people from all different sections.

"It's very early days yet, but it would be very good for the town council to have the young people's voice there."

Mr Reed will now be visiting other areas which have a youth council and research will take place over the coming months.

Homeless helped by YMCA scheme

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

TWO new projects have been opened at the YMCA in Milton Keynes to help improve its service.

The first is a new Winter Night Shelter project, which will provide additional crisis accommodation for rough sleepers during the winter months.

At the moment the existing YMCA hostel is unable to meet the rising demand of homelessness in the city.

In June it was reported that there were 180 households in the city who were accepted as homeless, which was up on the previous year when there were 84.

The new Winter Night Shelter project has been made possible by the churches of Milton Keynes who have provided venues and volunteers for the project and has been developed in conjunction with Milton Keynes Council.

In addition the YMCA has also opened a new communal residents' lounge, created in former office space, for which funds for renovation work were obtained from the National Lottery and Milton Keynes Community Foundation.

A helping hand: The YMCA in Milton Keynes has opened a new night shelter and communal lounge for residents

The residents' lounge provides a host of new facilities for YMCA residents, including laundry facilities, computer access and pool table.

Iain Stewart, MP for Milton Keynes South, and leader of Milton Keynes Council Andrew Geary joined a network of YMCA chief executives and residents to celebrate the official opening of the lounge earlier this month.

Mr Stewart said: "I was happy to join residents of the YMCA in launching their new hub.

"Community is extremely important and I am sure that the new hub will form the heart of the community in this hostel.

"I was also delighted to hear more about the Winter Shelter Project which local churches are involved in. It is a very worthwhile project."

Anybody wishing to help with the project should email wintershelter@mkymca.com or call 01908 295600.

Green fingers: Children at Giffard Park Primary School get ready to sow the seeds of their new garden

Kids' garden to be a sensory journey

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A PRIMARY school will soon have a new garden and wildlife pond thanks to a £10,000 grant.

On Friday, children, parents and staff at Giffard Park Primary School will be getting their green fingers dirty and planting part of their sensory garden, which will teach children about the environment and wildlife, thanks to the Big Lottery Fund money.

Walking along a new path, which has already been installed, users will be able to experience willow arches, box hedges, a herb garden, butterfly garden, grasses section and a rockery.

Natalie Goodman, the school's business manager, said the children are very excited about the project.

"This is an area the whole community can use if they are involved in the school," she said.

"It's here to teach children the importance of preserving wildlife and the environment. They'll get the experience of ownership and maintenance of the environment themselves."

Police gear up to keep drivers safe

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE have been clamping down on motorists this week as part of a youth road safety campaign.

This year the Brake Road Safety Week theme is 'Too young to die' and on Monday and yesterday police were in Denbigh to make seatbelt and car seat checks.

It follows a Safe Drive Stay Alive production, which has been shown in city colleges to highlight what can happen in road collisions.

The road safety team were also out in Broughton on Monday to try to catch speeders.

The aim of the campaign is to raise awareness of how road collisions involving a young driver, rider, cyclist, pedestrian or passenger can cause irreparable damage to families, schools and communities, often causing death and life changing injuries.

The message is that, by taking more care and attention of our own and others' children and young people, the numbers of incidents on our roads can be reduced.

Slow down: The road safety team in Broughton on Monday

Inspector Colin Clark, from the roads policing department, said: "Road death is the biggest killer of young people in the UK.

"Each week, more than two people die and around 180 are injured in collisions on the roads in Thames Valley.

"We will be working with our partner agencies across the Thames Valley to conduct various road safety checks throughout the week including seatbelt checks, child car seat checks, speed checks, vehicle defect checks and we will also be looking at pedestrian and pedal cycle safety as well.

"This road safety week follows on from our Safe Drive Stay Alive road safety production, which is about making young people aware of the many dangers they face and the impact of their actions behind the wheel, on themselves, their friends, family, and also the emergency services that deal with them."

Countdown to the big

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

IT'S an integral part of any yuletide celebration – the switching on of the Christmas lights.

Festive folk from across the city will be wrapping up warm and taking to the streets to see their communities magically lit up for the season.

So grab a mince pie and let MK NEWS tell you what's going on and where. . .

STONY STRATFORD
Saturday

The big switch-on is at 5pm but there is plenty to get excited about before then with the annual fun day, which gets underway at 10am in the High Street and Market Square.

There will be the usual lively mix of family entertainment, with stalls, dancers, a pantomime performance, musicians, Bernese Carter Dogs, Emmet's fairground, Kevin's pig and turkey roast and hot festive food.

One of the highlights will undoubtedly be the 4.15pm Children's lantern procession.

Flicking the switch to illuminate the town will be Sam Chan from The Golden Sea Chinese takeaway, one of the longest-running businesses in Stony.

BLETCHLEY
Saturday

Aladdin and Jasmine (otherwise known as MK Theatre panto stars Gareth Gates and Nicola Brazil) will be switching on the lights in Stanier Square, Queensway, at 4.30pm, followed by the lantern parade.

There will be festive activities from 10am, including a Christmas market, rides, attractions, music and carol singing.

FENNY STRATFORD
Saturday

The Farmers and Artisans Market will be held in Aylesbury Street from 9am, and there will be Christmas events in local shops.

Father Christmas will visit his grotto in Threads & Patches, Watling Street, at 3.30pm, and the switching on of the lights takes place at 4pm.

A lantern parade gets underway at 5.15pm. For more details, visit www.fennystratford.org.uk.

THEATRE DISTRICT
Sunday

The Theatre District has promised its biggest and best Christmas switch-on to date.

With a line-up which includes professional freestyle footballer Daniel Cutter, the MK Parkour Display Team and free kids' rides, it promises to be an exciting event, starting at 4pm with the MK brass band and rock choir.

Charity gets invite to Downing Street

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A CHARITY was welcomed into Downing Street to support its event for a project helping families of children with learning disabilities.

MacIntyre, which is based in Haddon, Great Holm, joined the Prime Minister's wife Samantha Cameron at Number 10 for the reception for Family Footings.

The charity's catering team was also invited to cater for the event.

MacIntyre has supported adults with learning disabilities across the city for 23 years and currently helps 170 people.

It is now hoping to improve its facilities in Great Holm by creating a sensory room and a hydrotherapy pool, as well as adding more scope for activities across the city by working with Milton Keynes Council.

Head of operations Anna Perry said: "This was a very ambitious and special event for us and people had been working hard for weeks to make sure it was a big success.

"We have an excellent reputation in the town and enjoy a wonderful relationship with many other local organisations, as well as the wider public.

"But in a way we are so much an accepted part of the local scene that people may take us for granted.

"However, MacIntyre is moving with the times, there have been many changes in the scope of our work and there are other exciting developments on the horizon.

"Hopefully our showcase event will open people's eyes and make many more friends for MacIntyre."

The charity will open its doors from December 2-4 to show the public the work it hopes to embark on.

The 'Christmas Showcase' will also feature a premiere of the drama group's Super Heroes film.

On December 3 there will be a family fun day and on December 4 a vintage craft fair.

More information can be found at www.macintyremiltonkeynes.org.

Bathing in beans helps raise cash

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

FUNDRAISERS across Milton Keynes helped to raise millions of pounds at the weekend to improve the lives of children across the country.

Milton Keynes-based Volkswagen Financial Services (VWFS) went all out for this years' Children in Need appeal after the company volunteered to act as one of the official call centres for the charity event.

More than £110,000 was donated through the call centre, while the staff at VWFS raised a further £8,259.85 from events on the day, including raffles, bake sales, a dress down day and a competition to guess how many balloons were in five Volkswagen Group vehicles.

Meanwhile, a newly-formed group in Netherfield held a pyjama walk and community fete.

The Netherfield Doers group, supported by Milton Keynes Council and Woughton Community Council, formed just a few months ago.

On Friday night it organised for residents to walk the redways in their nightwear, one of whom spent the whole day doing a sponsored silence. It followed it up with the fete on Saturday and in all, £140 was raised on the day.

Also on Friday, Fit4less gym staff filled a bath with 120 tins of beans in Midsummer Place.

Gym manager Jason Lombard-Jordan was nominated by staff to sit in the bathtub for six hours.

Helpers train dogs to sniff out cancer

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

VOLUNTEERS from the city are helping to train the next generation of sniffer dogs - to detect cancer.

Medical Detection Dogs, based west of Milton Keynes in Great Horwood, receives samples from hospitals in the region and uses these to train man's best friend to sniff out cancerous cells.

It is hoped this work will lead to the development of technology similar to that of a dog's nose, which can then be used to diagnose cancer early.

Jane Gold, from Calverton, who is a full-time puppy socialiser for the charity, said: "The new technology would be given to hospital doctors to filter out people with cancerous cells. Those who have them can then go through traditional diagnosis."

The charity has already carried out successful work with dogs who alert their diabetic owners to changes in skin scent conditions.

This means the dog can act as an early warning system if the owner's blood sugars are too low or too high, which can prevent diabetic comas or seizures.

Life savers: Training co-ordinator Rob Harris with Tiffer and puppy socialiser Jane Gold holding Dizzy

Jane, who prepares puppies for around 12 months for their working life, said: "I teach them basic manners before their advanced training to become a diabetic alert dog.

"I'll take any dog as long as it's friendly and most come from donations of other dog charities."

When this socialisation is over the dog will go to its owner and be trained specifically to detect slight changes in the scent of their skin that indicate a change in blood sugar levels. It will then be taught to alert that person to take action.

Jane said: "There's a very fine change of scent in the skin. When they detect that they are trained to jump up and pester the owner."

If you want to find out more information about the charity, visit www.medicaldetectiondogs.org.uk.

Open doors to shut out abuse

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

DOMESTIC violence issues were on the agenda at an awareness raising event yesterday.

Friday is international White Ribbon Day, where people across the world will wear a ribbon to show their support for those affected by domestic violence.

Closer to home, there are more than 5,000 incidents of domestic abuse in Milton Keynes reported to the police every year, and MK Act, an advice and support agency, deals with 900 victims every year.

Yesterday, a White Ribbon celebratory event was held at The Ridgeway Centre in Wolverton Mill, where experts and those involved in the local campaign met to discuss how to continue to combat the problem.

Neil Dodds, domestic and sexual violence reduction coordinator for MK Act, said: "We are trying to achieve general awareness in Milton Keynes.

"The idea of the event yesterday was, through the professionals who met, we can deliver the ongoing message of combatting domestic abuse issues in the city."

Also exhibited yesterday was the Opening Doors art project, organised by charity Inter-Action:MK.

Twenty-one full-size doors, painted by those who have experienced some form of domestic abuse, were erected and used to try to raise awareness of the issue.

Sharon Paulger, chairman of Inter-Action:MK, said: "The door is a symbol, because those in abusive relationships feel trapped but they can open doors to help.

"It's really important to raise awareness, to make people realise they can talk about it, because at the minute there's a stigma attached to domestic abuse.

"It should be out there in the public and open to discussion."

Victims of domestic abuse can call the MK Act helpline on 0844 3754307.

Opening doors: One of the exhibits at yesterday's meeting to raise awareness of domestic abuse

MK BUSINESS

Network group is child friendly

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW business network launched by two mums will meet for the first time on Tuesday – and young children are more than welcome.

Naomi Edwards and Helen Nagle-Smith wanted to do something to help parents who juggle being self-employed with staying at home to look after their children.

Having a baby or toddler at home makes traditional networking difficult because of the lack of childcare, but as making contacts is vital for the development or survival of any small business, Naomi and Helen wanted to make sure that stay-at-home parents don't miss out.

Naomi, who runs style consultancy business Match U Style, said: "We think you can mix having a child and your own business.

"We want to provide a friendly and supportive environment for parents to provide inspiration, creativity and information while making new contacts with other business owners."

Helen, from Havesham is mum to 10-month-old Kate while Naomi, who now lives outside of the city but still has many contacts here, has a three-year-old daughter named Aria.

Each monthly session of the Business Parent Network will include a speaker and time to network in an informal way, and those still too young for school can come along.

Helen, in charge of natural health company Balance Life, added: "My daughter is not in nursery or school and I don't have regular childcare so I can't take part in networking."

In the UK there are approximately 3.5million self-employed people, of which 27 per cent are women, and thousands of these are likely to have very young children.

It is people who fit that description in the city who Naomi and Helen are looking to touch base with.

The group is meeting for the first time on Tuesday at the 360 in Roebuck Way in Knowlhill, which is a baby, child and breast feeding friendly location, between 10.30am and noon.

Places must be booked in advance and are £6.

For more information call Helen on 07966 248859 or send an e-mail to business parentnetwork@gmail.com.

Celebrate being 21 in Fyne style

TO CELEBRATE its 21st birthday a restaurant in the city centre is offering 21-year-olds a taste of the good life with an invitation to enjoy a free oyster.

Loch Fyne, in The Hub, is known for its oysters, considered to be a delicacy the world over.

Now the group's managing director Liz Williams wants to give youngsters 'coming of age' in the city the opportunity to taste them.

She said: "Not many young people have tried oysters by the time they turn 21 and many assume they won't like them.

"As we share an important birthday, we'd like to personally introduce them to the delicacy, so that the first oyster they sample is one of the very best."

Although Loch Fyne's roots are firmly planted in the west coast of Scotland, where the business started as a small roadside stall on the banks of the loch, the first restaurant south of the border was launched 21 years ago.

It now has a reputation for using fresh sustainable fish.

Loch Fyne oysters are famous all over the world, with more than two million being harvested in its fresh waters every year.

Customers aged 21 will be entitled to the free oyster until Saturday and will be required to show proof of age.

Some conditions apply - see www.lochfyne-restaurants.com.

Working up a sweat: Owner Akbar Ali tries the curry

Vindaloo could be too hot to handle for curry lovers

BRAVE curry lovers are in for a treat as one restaurant is offering a seriously spicy dish - and a certificate if you can finish it.

Kardamom Lounge on Stony Stratford High Street claims to have the hottest ruby in town.

The Viscious Vindaloo contains ten of the world's spiciest chillies imported from Bangladesh.

Every customer who attempts the dish, made with naga chillies, will also receive a free pint of lager, and if you finish you can boast the certificate.

Restaurant owner Akbar Ali said: "Every curry lover knows that Phall is the hottest dish on the menu, but our Viscious Vindaloo will blow it out of the water.

"A lot of men and women think they like hot food, but this curry makes a Phall taste like a Korma. I am expecting to see a lot of sweating red faces while the customer goes for it."

MKNEWS BRIEFS

'Gold ticket' for Red Bull

ANYONE who snaps up an Infiniti FX car will be in line to receive a money can't buy tour of Red Bull's base in Tilbrook.

Ten people will be invited on the Willy Wonka-style tour next year if they buy any one of the nine strong range of diesel and petrol engined vehicles.

Red Bull's Formula One World Champion Sebastian Vettel drives an Infiniti FX.

Fundraising down to a tee

CITY businesses helped to raise £1,000 for the British Heart Foundation at MK Lightning's charity golf day. A total of 30 supporters, friends and players enjoyed a round at the Three Locks Golf Club at Stoke Hammond to raise funds for the club's designated charity.

Local firm bucks trend

MILTON Keynes-based window and door company Custom Glaze has reported a ten per cent rise in annual turnover and taken on extra staff over the past year.

The family-run businss, which celebrated its 30th anniversary in October, claims its success reflects a resiliant local market for home improvements, as well as general trends in improving rather than moving. The firm says the recent expansion of its showroom at Denbigh Hall in Bletchley also helped sales growth. Managing director John Fletcher said: "This helps us to gain repeat business and recommendation from satisfied customers."

Lok'nStore now greener

STORAGE company Lok'nStore has announced that it will use 100 per cent renewable electricity across its 21 self storage centres in the South East of England.

The company has signed up for Green Energy's deep green tariff, which means the power of falling water, the sun, wind and organic waste material will be utilised.

Lesley Maculey, store manager of Lok'nStore Milton Keynes, said: "I am pleased to announce that Lok'nStore is getting even greener."

SIMON DARNELL

STARLIGHT
Matt Cardle

THE first seven seconds of this song are actually quite good, but then Mr Cardle starts singing and it falls down from that point on.

Now, that may sound to you as though I hate his singing but that's not the case. Although he won The X Factor he's a pretty decent singer.

No, the issue here is, as it regularly seems to be with sub-par pop songs, with the words. Allow me to demonstrate by using this song lyric that happens to be lying around: "Hearts are racing at the speed of light."

Notwithstanding the issue that if a heart really did beat that fast, then things were unlikely to end well for said heart's owner, it's also a staggeringly naff opening line.

When we get down to the root of the problem with this song, I can't see a reason for Starlight to exist.

It doesn't sound particularly new, it doesn't have anything to say that hasn't been said before and it's proof that you can have a decent singing voice, but if the song's not up to the job you're in trouble.

SHAKE
Little Boots

THERE'S something to be said for songs that have loads of echo effects added to them; for one thing they sound much bigger than they are.

Shake is a giant warehouse of a song, but if you took out the echo you'd be lucky to get much more than a greenhouse, so Little Boots definitely made the right decision there.

It's very dancey, it's one of the best songs I've heard in a while (since last week, in fact) and it also has the title seemingly chanted by a Smash Martian robot, so what's not to like?

Nothing, that's what.

CRAUFURD ARMS

SAVES THE DAY
Friday 7.30pm

SAVES The Day have come a long way since arguably their most famous hour - 2001's sublime record Stay What You Are and the cracking sing-a-long anthem At Your Funeral.

Now, the band have an entirely fresh feel about them with new members Arun Bali, Rodrigo Palma and Claudio Rivera linking up with singer-guitarist and chief songwriter Chris Conley due to departures elsewhere.

The new members have recorded the band's new album Daybreak, which forms the final part of a trilogy after 2006's Sound the Alarm and Under The Boards, which arrived the following year.

"Sound The Alarm is an expression of discontent, Under The Boards is reflection and remorse and Daybreak is acceptance," Conley said.

"Daybreak is both an ending and a new beginning."

Tickets cost £13.50.

GET into the festive spirit with the heart-warming family musical Scrooge starring the legendary Tommy Steele as the mean old miser.

Based on the classic Dickens' tale, this smash hit production follows grumpy old Ebenezer Scrooge whose 'Bah-Humbug' attitude towards the Christmas season means he gets a visit from the ghost of his former partner, Jacob Marley, as well as three very special ghouls determined to show him the error of his ways.

HENRY V

Tuesday-Saturday, November 29-December 3

SHAKESPEARE'S drama Henry V, led by director Edward Hall and performed by the all-male company Propeller, is set to engage your imagination and bring fresh understanding to this classic play.

Renowned for combining a rigorous approach to the text with an exciting, physical aesthetic, Propeller's new production of Henry V tells the tale of the greatest British warrior in English folklore.

In a time when nationalism is at its most dangerous and exciting and increasing numbers of British servicemen and women are seeing active service, Propeller brings its own unique take on one of Shakespeare's most famous plays.

Thrilling and deeply moving, Henry V marks the beginning of a journey that takes you from the corridors of Westminster to the fields of France in an evening of unforgettable power.

The cast will include Dugald Bruce-Lockhart in the title role of King Henry V, with Vince Leigh as Pistol and Tony Bell as Mistress Quickly.

MK THEATRE – SPRING SEASON

MK THEATRE is set to burst into spring with a season brimmed with up-lifting West End musicals, sensational drama, dazzling dance and breathtaking opera.

The jewel in the crown of the glittering line-up is the first national tour of Dirty Dancing (May 1-26), telling the classic story of Johnny and Baby live on stage.

But before that the multi award-winning Wonderful Town (April 24-28), starring Connie Fisher, recreates 1930s New York City to the tune of Leonard Bernstein's magnificent music, while Save The Last Dance For Me (April 10-14) will take you back to the 60s.

Throw in the return of Joseph (April 3-8) starring Keith Jack, David Essex bringing you roller-coaster ride All The Fun Of The Fair (February 7-11) and the musical comedy Sister Act (June 19-30) and you'll be in for some real musical treats.

There's drama from The Royal Shakespeare Company, which returns with The Taming of the Shrew (March 6-10), followed by Pulitzer prize-winning masterpiece Long Day's Journey Into Night (March 12-17) and, direct from the West End, the hilarious Yes Prime Minister (March 26-31).

Matthew Bourne returns with his 20th anniversary production of Nutcracker! (February 14-18), while Northern Ballet presents its fairytale production of Beauty and the Beast (April 17-21) followed by the much talked about Irish dance spectacular Lord of the Dance (January 20-22).

For music lovers the Welsh National Opera gives you La Traviata (Verdi) Beatrice and Benedict (Berlioz) and Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro (March 20-24). And be prepared to be amazed by illusionist Derren Brown with his critically acclaimed production Svengali (February 27-March 3).

Kids are catered for by a visit from The Gruffalo (April 26-28) with plenty of songs, fun and laughs.

All this and a fantastic array of one off shows means you will be truly stage struck at MK Theatre over the coming months.

Dirty Dancing will take to the stage in the spring

STANTONBURY THEATRE

CRANFORD AT CHRISTAMS

Friday, 7.30pm

CHAPTERHOUSE Theatre Company is bringing a lavish new production of Cranford at Christmas to the city.

The TV smash hit, that starred Dame Judi Dench, is sure to delight all the family as the magic of a very Victorian Christmas comes alive.

Adapted by Laura Turner from the novel Cranford by Elizabeth Gaskell, it is set deep in the frosty English countryside, chestnuts are roasting and carols are being sung as the folk of Cranford busily prepare for Christmas.

Join Miss Pole, Miss Matty and Mrs Jamieson as they warm their frozen hands on cups of steaming cocoa and bedeck the house with holly and mistletoe.

But beyond this cosy hubbub of festivity, snow continues to fall and when disaster strikes the community must unite to keep the spirit of Christmas alive.

The festive season really starts at Stantonbury with this heart-warming tale of charity and goodwill to all.

Tickets £12.50, or concessions £10.50.

His musical experiences coupled with his patience and encouragement have developed the band to the highest standard resulting in it giving six or more concerts a year to raise money for national charities.

All proceeds from this concert will go to Lions charities.

COMPETITION

TO CELEBRATE the opening of the first Champneys Day Spa at Boots in thecentre:mk we are offering one lucky reader and two friends the chance to enjoy some luxurious treatments.

The new Day Spa is borne out of a true partnership between Champneys and Boots, who have a combined heritage in health and beauty of more than 270 years.

It has opened following the successful launch of the Champneys Spa Products, which arrived in Boots stores in April.

Whether you need a beauty quick-fix or much needed pamper, this new spa offers five luxurious treatment rooms where you can enjoy exceptional therapies - a brow bar, St Tropez tanning bar, manicure and pedicure bays, plus the latest beauty trend, the Garra Spa fish pedicure.

It really is the best place to get all your beauty essentials, including the Champneys Spa Collection, and relax and be pampered.

And don't forget, exclusive events are held regularly at Champneys Day Spas offering workshops, mini spa treatments, goody bags, discounts and a glass of wine - a perfect evening for you and your friends.

We are offering one reader and two friends a CACI 55-minute non-surgical face lift, worth £60 each, and a hot lava shells back massage, worth £40 each.

A CACI non-surgical face lift is an electronic beauty treatment using a CACI machine. CACI treatments lift the face by toning facial muscles, smoothing away fine lines and wrinkles and preventing sagging skin.

CHAMPNEYS
THE PLACE TO BE

When you go to the gym, you work your muscles to give yourself a better body shape, so why not work your face and keep that in better shape too?

For the ultimate, calming massage, the lava shells treatment is the soothing solution.

As the therapist glides the marine polished sea shells smoothly over the body, you will instantly drift into a blanket of warmth, falling into a state of utter relaxation and calm.

For your chance to be a winner, simply answer the following question: Where is the new Champneys Day Spa?

Send your entry, along with your name, address and contact details, to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU. The closing date for entries is Wednesday, November 30. The editor's decision is final.

Terms and conditions

Available at Champneys Milton Keynes only. Subject to availability. Cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer. Valid Monday-Wednesday only.

You can find Champneys Day Spa at Boots, Crown Walk, Milton Keynes.

Call 01908 239883, or log onto miltonkeynes@champneys.com.

BULL HOTEL, STONY STRATFORD

IF YOU fancy bashing sticks, waving handkerchiefs, or perhaps being a fool with a bludder then morris dancing could be just the stuff for you.

Rose & Castle Morris is running a taster session on Sunday, from 10.30am to noon, in the front bar of the Bull Hotel in Stony Stratford.

So if you think it's all beards, silly outfits and bells you could be in for a surprise.

The session gives you a chance to see a slide show that covers the history and different traditions of morris dancing, try a simple dance, or just go along and have a chat.

The traditional English dance, which has been the butt of jokes for decades, received a great boost during the folk revival of the mid-70s as many young people started morris teams and lots of those dancers are still dancing today.

With the passing of time a new wave of dancers are needed to carry the tradition on and The Rose & Castle Morris is looking for male dancers, male or female musicians, including someone who would like to play the bass drum, as well as other interested helpers.

To find out more visit www.rose-castlemorris.org.uk.

HEART FM COLUMN

BREAKFAST show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday morning on Heart FM and write to you each week in MK NEWS.

We chatted this week to Dannii Minogue, much to Stuart's excitement. He's a big fan and the pair of us watched her TV show when we lived together.

So Stuart wanted to see whether Dannii remembered their previous encounters, which included Planet Hollywood for the launch party of her cover of This Is It.

"Oh my gosh," exclaimed Dannii. "That was the biggest opening party ever."

They met over a milkshake and Stuart wanted to know if she remembered him. "Very spikey blond hair - lots of hairspray," she said.

Then he moved on to the second occasion when he said hello to her on a flight. What Stuart didn't realise was that Kylie was sat next to her - he thought it was Dannii's PA and she thought it was hilarious. "I'm going to play Kylie this interview," she added.

Sadly Dannii didn't remember the plane.

Then Stu really pulled it out the bag as he knew the night before Dannii had dined with X Factor runner up Ruth Lorenzo, as she is a friend of his.

When he told Dannii she said: "Were you serving us? Are you moonlighting as a waiter?"

We wanted to know more about her relationships with the people she was mentoring.

Dannii said: "I was lucky, I got to work with some really cool people and for me the mentoring was so personal, when you've got someone's hopes and dreams and their whole life's in your hands.

"It's crazy that you wouldn't get close to them, so when I'm popping into London I try to catch up, and Ruth was looking hot."

Dannii said she's been watching the Australian X Factor more than the UK, but she had heard of Jonny as Kylie tweeted him after he sung one of her songs.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday from 6-10am on Heart 103.3FM.

CITY LIMITS, XSCAPE

THE COMEDY CLUB

Tomorrow, 7.30pm

THE nights may be drawing in, but the sound of laughter is set to light up the next Comedy Club night at City Limits.

Always on the pulse with the hottest new stars on the prestigious UK comedy circuit, the Comedy Club proudly presents three top comedians, and that means you're assured a whole night of laughs.

Best-loved as one third of BBC's award-winning hidden-camera comedy show 3 Non-Blondes, Ninia Benjamin has branched out on her own in stand-up and is already going down a storm.

Described by one journalist as the Comedy Assassin, Ninia certainly takes no prisoners, but armed with a big smile, a lot of cheek and a huge amount of wit, she maims her audiences with mirth and then kills them with kindness.

Fresh-faced comedian-stroke-actor Tom Price is getting big and is going to be a lot bigger.

Not happy with an award-winning start to his stand-up career, Tom also gets to fight aliens alongside John Barrowman and co in Torchwood, the popular adult spin-off from Doctor Who.

Stuart Goldsmith

He also got to play comic giant John Cleese in the biopic of Cleese's fellow Python Graham Chapman, A Very Naughty Boy.

Former street performer Stuart Goldsmith has a pitch-perfect delivery, with every nuance carefully calculated for maximum impact. The tricks of the comedy trade haven't passed him by.

More details are available at www.hahaheehee.com. Tickets £13, or £11 for Comedy Club members.

First show homes open at Stratford Park

David Wilson Homes has opened the first show homes at Stratford Park, a major development near the historic market town of Stony Stratford.

The contemporary style and quality build of the homes have made them so popular that one was reserved during the opening weekend.

Building work on Stratford Park began this autumn and a selection of one, two, three, four and five bedroom homes will be on offer from three of the UK's largest house builders, Barratt Homes, Bellway and David Wilson Homes.

These major builders are combining to deliver high standards of build quality, planned environment and interior design, all of which assure buyers they are investing in a comfortable and quality new home.

With prices currently ranging from £214,995 to £274,995 for three and four bedroom homes, agent Carter Jonas sees Stratford Park will appeal to professionals and families looking to enjoy the rural charm and boutique shops of Stony Stratford, as well as the area's excellent transport connections, with Wolverton close by and just 45 minutes by train from London Euston.

For more information on Stratford Park or to register your interest, please visit www.stratfordpark.co.uk or contact Sarah Price on 01604 608223.

The David Wilson show homes are open to view daily from 11am to 6pm. Contact Mark and Flip on 07769 306851 / 0844 8114477 or email stratfordpark@dwh.co.uk.

Bellway Homes is due to open its show home at the end of November and Barratt Homes will be launching in December.

Get your brand closer to people's lives

No other medium is as close to people's hearts as Regional Press. Consumers consider it an integral part of their community.
The effectiveness of regional press advertising in driving sales comes down to the simple fact that people prefer to do most of their spending close to where they live.
Consumers' Choice V, a national consumer survey by TNS Media, found that regional press advertising is the most frequently acted upon, with 61% of people responding to it'.
No wonder brands enjoy a closer relationship with consumers when advertised in this, the most trusted and effective medium of all.

(PARTS OF THE A4146, WATLING STREET AND BRICKHILL ROAD)
(TEMPORARY SPEED RESTRICTION) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 23 November 2011 made an Order under Section 14(4) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 because works to reduce vegetation are to be carried out at the A5 roundabout at Kelly's Kitchen, Milton Keynes. 2. Watling Street from its junction with the A5 roundabout at Kelly's Kitchen, continuing for a distance of approximately 390 metres in a north-westerly direction;
3. Brickhill Road from its junction with the A5 roundabout at Kelly's Kitchen, continuing for a distance of approximately 240 metres in a northerly direction.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order other than for emergency services vehicles and military vehicles.

The Order will come into operation on 28 November 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the said works have been completed, whichever is the earlier. If the works are not completed within the period stated, a further order may be made.

The temporary speed restriction will be signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

(PROHIBITION OF WAITING) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 23 November 2011 made an Order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. The Order, which comes into effect on 25 November 2011, affects all classes of vehicle and has the following effect along Walton Drive, Walton Hall:-

The introduction of 'no waiting at any time' restrictions along both sides of Walton Drive commencing from the slip road at its junction with Groveway to its junction with Church Lane.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(DRAYTON ROAD AND BARTON ROAD (PARTS), BLETCHLEY)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes with the consent of Buckinghamshire County Council intends, has, on the 23rd November 2011, made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all vehicular access along the following lengths of road during the dates and times stated below:-

Drayton Road, Bletchley from a point approximately 150 metres north of its junction with the A4146 to its junction with Lomond Drive, Bletchley. It is anticipated that this closure will commence from 8.00pm on Saturday 26th November 2011 until 3.00pm on Sunday 27th November 2011.

The alternative route for southbound traffic will be to proceed left onto Lomond Drive, then right onto Stoke Road, then right onto the A4146 and vice versa for northbound traffic.

Barton Road, Bletchley from the southern end of Barton Road at a point adjacent to number 32 Barton Road for a distance of approximately 110 metres in a northerly direction to its junction with the access road into Water Eaton Industrial Estate. It is anticipated that this closure will commence from 12.00 noon on Saturday 17th December 2011 until 8.00pm on Sunday 18th December 2011.

There will be no alternative route for traffic for this closure.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closures are necessary because of the likelihood of danger to the public whilst a mobile crane is positioned on site in order to enable the delivery of signalling structures into position on the railway infrastructure.

The temporary restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The Order will come into operation on Saturday the 26th November 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the likelihood of danger to the public has been alleviated, which ever is the sooner. If the danger remains up to the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(REDWAY (PART) ADJACENT TO THE H6 CHILDS WAY, WOOLSTONE)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends, in not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along that length of redway that runs alongside the south east side of the H6 Childs Way, adjacent to Woolstone. The closure will start from the H6 Childs Way bus stop situated west of Pattison Lane, Woolstone continuing in a westerly direction to the south-western side of the Grand Union canal bridge in Springfield.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure is necessary because of works being carried out, namely excavation works on the redway to investigate a leaking water main. It is anticipated the temporary closure will take place from Monday 5th December 2011 until Friday 30th December 2011, inclusive. The redway may open sooner if the works are completed ahead of schedule.

The restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

The alternative route for westbound access will be to turn left onto Pattison Lane, Woolstone and continue in a southerly direction to the redway adjacent to Rendlesham, Woolstone, then turn right onto the redway and continue in a westerly direction over the canal bridge and into Springfield, turn right onto the adjoining redway and continue in a north-westerly direction to the redway that runs alongside the H6 Childs Way and vice versa for eastbound access.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The proposed Order will come into operation on Monday 5th December 2011 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the works are completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

In the other game Stoke Hammond MK defeated Stantonbury The Manor 2-0.

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

I HAD a bad day on Saturday before the result.

First I broke my watch in the warm-up when I caught the ball while doing the shooting.

I was trying to find the pin on the ground, not because I was worried about the watch as I knew I could get another pin, but because it's metal so I didn't want it to stick in somebody's knee.

Then I dropped my phone in the toilet when I was rushing at half-time.

In the end though I was delighted with the performance and in particular it was great to see Tom Flanagan get his name on the scoresheet.

His celebration didn't surprise me, although it would have been better on a wet pitch. He deserves it.

Tom has done really well since coming through the ranks and he has spent a lot of time on the training ground.

We've worked on everything with him to be honest, including spending some time strengthening his left foot.

I'm delighted to see him rising to the task and it's great for the club that young players are now providing serious competition for places. We could pick a reserve team that could be a first team.

Everybody contributed to the win and it was a great team performance in the end after a shaky start.

I didn't feel any tension in the second half as I always thought we would get a third, we probably should have got it straight after half time.

Karl had some strong words during the break and I hope I had some sensible ones. The third goal was all important.

On Saturday we play Wycombe and it will be the first time I have been against my former club in a competitive game.

I was proud of the style of play my Wycombe team had, just as myself and Karl are proud of the way we play now.

That was probably the major factor about my time there.

Even though the fans there were good to me I want to beat them, it's simple and straight forward.

It's another important game for us, following on from our success on Saturday and the games before.

We know it's not going to be an easy one as Wycombe will be fighting for their lives.

COLCHESTER UNITED 1 DONS 5

Dons celebrate Gleeson's fourth

Dons score with five Essex goals

SOMETIMES, a result doesn't tell the full story and that was certainly the case in Essex on Saturday.

A 5-1 away victory is an emphatic scoreline but for the first half-an-hour Dons were anything but comfortable.

Karl Robinson's side failed to get started as fellow promotion hopefuls Colchester dictated both the pace and tempo.

The U's midfield were well on top with a slick passing game that Dons were struggling to deal with and when the visiting defence went to sleep, allowing Matt Heath a simple close range header to open the scoring, it looked like it could be a long afternoon for the men in black.

"I thought for 30 minutes they were sensational in the way they moved and passed the ball," Robinson said.

"But for all their good play their goal came from horrific defending from a corner, I was furious."

It was a poor start but as we have seen so often in football, the game took a sudden and dramatic turn.

Colchester had failed to get a second goal which their dominance probably deserved and just like that, Dons were level.

Daniel Powell squared for Charlie MacDonald who did what he does best with a close range finish.

The ground was silenced and the whole momentum of the game shifted.

With almost the last kick of the half, Tom Flanagan put Dons in front with an exquisite back post volley following Stephen Gleeson's corner.

Going in ahead had barely seemed possible just minutes earlier but Dons had now found their stride and looked a world apart from the side that had started the game.

Colchester too continued to battle and for half an hour of the second half it was a fascinating contest.

MacDonald slides home the equaliser

Both sides created chances and knew that the next goal was key in an increasingly tense affair.

On 74 minutes it was Dons who got that breakthrough to ensure that the match no longer precariously hung in the balance.

MacDonald was again in the right place at the right time with another tap in which brought Robinson out of the dugout in celebration.

He knew the importance of it with all three outcomes still possible up until that point, and it was Dons who had that little extra quality near goal when it really mattered.

It was MacDonald's sixth of the season since being brought in to replace Sam Baldock, making him the club's top scorer this term in all competitions.

Colchester, and Andy Bond and Kayode Odejayi in particular, spurned their best opportunities and when the third went in their heads noticeably dropped.

They had been in the game for so long but Dons were in a ruthless mood and added two further goals against their despondent hosts.

Gleeson found the corner from 20 yards and Jabo Ibehre blasted into an empty net from the goal-line following a second assist from sub Dean Bowditch.

It ensured a four goal cushion which was perhaps harsh on the hosts, but Dons were clinical when their chances arrived and to beat a strong side like Colchester so convincingly is an impressive feat.

They sucked the life out of their opponents in the second half with a hard working and professional display, a superb turn-around after the opening stages.

He said: "I went mad at half-time and there were a few home truths, but in the second half I thought we showed a touch of class, I thought we looked like a top quality team, with clinical, precise passing.

"We defended really well and I thought we had all the components necessary to be a good team.

"It's only their second defeat of the season at home which shows you how good that performance was.

"They are a good team and that's why it's even more pleasing."

VINCE'S VIEW

HELLO all, to this week's Vince's View. It's been a long time since we had a home game and now, rather like buses, along come two in a row.

Following a tough road trip to Plymouth last week we now have home games on Friday and on Tuesday, with the latter being live on Sky Sports television.

This will be the first BBL live game of the season and our match up against the undefeated Worcester Wolves was selected.

We hope to have a great crowd in on that night for national exposure but before that we have the small matter of entertaining the Glasgow Rocks this Friday at 7.30pm.

In the aforementioned loss to Plymouth, we actually played well in spells and with just four minutes to play were exactly where we wanted to be in order to make a push for the win. Unfortunately a missed three pointer and three successive turnovers saw the game go away from us. However, as a learning experience for our two legged affair against them in the BBL Trophy semi-finals I think it worked out well.

Off the floor we will welcome Louis the Lion back into action courtesy of a sponsorship with Krispy Kreme's doughnuts. Their kind support has enabled a newly born Louis to take to the court and he is brushing up his skills for his first outing.

By the way, catch him and some of the guys at Krispy Kreme's this Saturday as the newly refurbished store opens in the shopping centre.

The juniors have been extremely busy as the U14s won at Baddow while the U13s fell to a very good Wellingborough team.

In the U16s spare a thought for Callum Rodger who was taken to hospital in London on Saturday with a suspected broken leg. The good news is, it's not broken just a dislocated joint and knowing Callum, he will be back in action in about a week.

There is great anticipation for these two home games so do come down and support us as we continue to show that MK is the home of basketball. Check out all the news at www.mklions.com.

In the meantime, I leave you with this week's nugget: "When everything is going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it." - Henry Ford.

Lions battle travel bug

LIONS will cure their current travel sickness, according to star man Demarius Bolds.

MK have lost every away game in the British Basketball League this season following Wednesday night's 92-76 reverse at Plymouth Raiders but guard Bolds believes that the side are improving all the time.

Mike New's men – who have also lost at Leicester in both the BBL Cup and Trophy – will need to improve their form away from the city to achieve their lofty ambitions for the season.

By contrast, the results at the MK Lions arena have been flawless with a perfect record of three wins from three.

Bolds told MK NEWS: "The season has been a rollercoaster so far, but we are trying to get it together.

"At least two players seemed to have been injured for each game, so it's been hard, but I think we are getting better every day."

The BBL away defeats have come at Glasgow, Newcastle and Plymouth, and while admitting disappointment about the results, Bolds has taken some heart from the fact that three long trips are now out of the way early.

He said: "Everyone got mad about it but we've had three long drives to three hard places to play."

Bolds has been a stand-out performer for Lions this season but said he had only played two good games out of the four BBL clashes, a record he described as 'not being good enough'.

In Plymouth, Lions found themselves behind for the majority of the match but New's men gave themselves hope with their best spell of the match at the start of the third quarter.

A Howard Crawford two pointer ended a superb 22-8 run, which gave Lions a 57-58 lead, but they were unable to build on this slender advantage as Plymouth went on a run of their own to lead by six points going into the final quarter.

This gap was then trimmed to three but that was as close as Lions came as Plymouth began to motor in the final stages.

Coach Gavin Love refocused the Raiders who ended the match on a 19-6 run to seal the victory.

Crawford top scored for Lions with 21 points, closely followed by Bolds and Daniel Northern who both chipped in with 16.

Reigning league MVP Jeremy Bell added 21 points for Raiders who were playing their first game of the season in the league.

The South West outfit have been going well in the knockout competitions though, reaching the semi finals of both the BBL Cup and Trophy.

In the latter they will face the Lions over two legs for a spot in the final and although MK were defeated last week, the match would have provided good preparation for that all important clash next year.

Lions now have two home games in a row, starting with the visit of Glasgow Rocks on Friday night, with a 7.30pm start.

POWERLIFTING

EIGHTY-ONE year old Ted Brown claimed his eighth world title in eight years while competing in the 60kg bodyweight class at the World Drug Free Powerlifting Championships, and all of his lifts were new world records.

Fellow local lifters Neil Abery, Simon Marshall and Henry Clark also travelled to the event in Glasgow and won world titles in their classes.

RUGBY UNION

Bletchley 16 Reading Abbey 10

BLETCHLEY had to come from behind to win this match, which featured American referee Tom Lyons due to the RFU's exchange scheme.

Tries from Lee Waite and Tom Huggins, either side of Phil Harman's penalty, put Abbey 10-3 up but Dave Coleman's boot reduced that lead to three.

Home winger Will Garrett then superbly beat three players to go over and put the home side in front, before Harman's penalty sealed the win.

Bletchley are now eighth in South West One East.

Olney 17 Cheltenham 22

A MUCH improved performance from bottom club Olney wasn't enough to stop this defeat to the the South West One East's second placed club.

Rob Edwards touched down after Cheltenham had raced into a 12-0 lead, but the visitors were always slightly ahead of the game.

Cameron Mclean went over twice for the always battling Olney.

Milton Keynes 36 Wallingford 15

THERE was a fine win for MK who are second in the Southern Counties North.

Stuart Tomkinson's superb try helped give the city side an 11-8 lead at half-time and they went on to be dominant in the second half.

Tries from Kieran McConnell, Neil Haynes and Phil Powell, who also had an excellent day with the boot, completed the victory.

HOCKEY

MK Men 1sts 1 Richmond 1sts 2

BASIC errors were to cost MK in a frustrating home contest with league leaders Richmond.

MK went behind after some loose passing and shaky defending – keeper Nick Gage did his best to keep the ball out but the rebound was turned in.

A second defensive error led to Richmond's second before Andy Dixon pulled one back.

SWIMMING

THE CITY of Milton Keynes swim club hosted one of the biggest competitions in the area this weekend, with more than 300 swimmers competing at the Bletchley Leisure Centre.

Medals and qualifying spots for the county, regional and national championships were up for grabs with local teams battling those from further afield. For a full list of CMK winners see www.mk-news.co.uk/sport.

pass to level the game.

Parity was only restored for 47 seconds though, as Greg Wood quickly restored the lead for the visitors and Edgars Bebris made it 3-1 shortly after half an hour.

Bebris was on target again to seal the points for Steeldogs with a shot which beat Alex Mettam with two minutes left on the clock.

Poole's side were perhaps suffering a hangover from that result when Telford arrived in the city 24-hours later, as the visitors went in front after two minutes when Ryan Selwood passed from behind the net for Josh Bruce to score.

However, this was to be the only time Telford found their way past Lightning all evening, and their advantage only stood for another two minutes.

Blaz Emersic was the man to get Lightning back into the game after he connected with a Lewis Christie pass to slot home past netminder Declan Ryan.

Gracik made it 2-1 when he fired home a Jamieson pass on 31m 48s, but it was to be the final period which was the decider, with Telford never far from equalling the scoreline in the second.

Emersic was involved again with the all important third, passing to Jamieson for the Milton Keynes-born forward to score just before the 50 minute mark.

Emersic got his second goal of the night only two minutes later, and Jamieson netted again to make the score even more secure at 5-1.

Matt Towalski sealed the points for Lightning with just one minute and four seconds remaining, scoring from a Lukas Zatopek pass and sending the home team's supporters home happy.

Lightning currently sit fourth in the table with games in hand over all of the top three.

Lions ready for Glasgow – page 83

Striker Charlie MacDonald scored twice as a rampant Dons thrashed Colchester on Saturday. He is now top scorer for the season. More on page 82.

Best shape of the season

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

DONS are in their best shape of the season according to boss Karl Robinson, because they know what it's like to hurt.

The man in the club's hot-seat watched his side recover from a shaky start to demolish Colchester 5-1 on Saturday and was left purring by the second half display.

It was the fourth win in a row for Dons who have found the net 16 times in those games.

And because the run of form has come directly after a poor spell – when Dons won just twice in ten League One outings – Robinson believes that his men are better equipped to maintain the purple patch.

He said: "The beauty of this team is we've seen what happens when you come off the pedal.

"We're not waiting for a blip as we already know what it's like and we know how hard it is to get out of.

"When you've had it, it means when you are riding high you want to stay there and fight for it."

Dons are currently ten points behind leaders Charlton and five points behind second placed Huddersfield, who claimed a Football League record of 43 games unbeaten at the weekend.

Both sides have made lightning starts to the campaign but Robinson believes that their time will come to struggle.

"Sometimes when you are up there you don't know what it's like not to have something," Robinson said.

"Other clubs determine their own destiny but every club has a blip.

"What Huddersfield have achieved is a miracle but I'm sure they will have a blip one day.

"We've had ours now and will go from strength to strength into the Christmas period."

Robinson will again have a full squad for Saturday's derby clash with Wycombe at stadiummk on Saturday.

He has admitted his frustration at the new ruling which restricts the number of substitutes to five, claiming it makes it hard to keep players in the right frame of mind.

Several players are in need of some time on the pitch and some loan moves away from Dons are expected to be completed shortly.

"I think Wycombe hate us more than we hate them as they were the best team in Buckinghamshire and now we are," Robinson said.

"They have some good footballers. If we approach it in the right frame of mind we'll win the game, if not, we won't."

Meanwhile, 14-year-old midfield ace Seyi Ojo has completed a move from the club's youth set-up to Premier League Liverpool.

Speculation about the youngster moving had been rife since his sparkling displays for England U16, and Anfield is now the destination.

Dons said they legally can't speak about any fee which may have been received.

"A number of clubs wanted him and we did our job by the boy," Robinson said.

"I didn't get involved, I didn't want everyone to think that it was something that I did so I took a massive step back. I'm sure there will be others like him."

Robinson has also continued his enquiries about agents illegally watching the club's young talent, and has planned sit-down meetings with the Premier League and FA after receiving a positive response to his complaints.

"The Premier League were magnificent," Robinson said.

"There are some great agents, but we can't let toxic waste be poured into kids' brains at a young age."

Lightning need to end inconsistency

NICK Poole has urged his his MK Lightning players to end their inconsistent run ahead of the weekend's crunch matches.

The English Premier League outfit enjoyed three consecutive 100 per cent weekends last month but it's been a mixed bag since the double win over Basingstoke Bison on October 22/23.

Lightning have lost at least one of their games each weekend since then, a run which highlights the strength in depth in the division.

Poole has previously stated that every team in the league will provide a stern test this season but he will be hoping that his side can return to the form which saw them string together back to back wins.

"We had fantastic momentum early on in the season," he said.

"Nobody's been more disappointed than us that one or two results haven't been what we've wanted since then."

There are two goals for Lightning this weekend, securing a place in the EPL cup semi-finals and beating two teams they've yet to beat, Sheffield Steeldogs and Peterborough Phantoms.

Lightning were beaten 4-1 in Sheffield on Saturday before bouncing back at home on Sunday with a 6-1 win over Telford Tigers.

The Steeldogs arrive in the city on Saturday night and revenge will be on Lightning's mind – they also lost in Sheffield on the season's first weekend.

"They're a stronger team than last season, as they showed us last weekend," Poole said.

"They didn't have a great time last season, but this year they're a solid, hard-working unit and nobody can say it's only Sheffield any more, or only any other team, everyone has improved."

On Sunday Lightning travel to Peterborough who won 4-1 in the Thunderdome at the end of October.

Poole said: "We'd love to see and hear our supporters in Peterborough, this time we want to send them home smiling."

Lightning, playing a second weekend without injured skipper Adam Carr, went a goal down at iceSheffield on Saturday when Andre Payette was the provider for the prolific Janis Ozolins, but Leigh Jamieson connected with a Juraj Gracik
